I Got a Sister (but I wanted a dog)

I got a sister, well, I got a sister, but I wanted a dog. I wanted a dog.
 I got a sister, I'm telling you mister, I wanted a dog.
 Yeah, I wanted a dog.
 When I spoke to my parents and asked them for someone to play with
 they misunderstood my request,
 and a sister came instead of my dog.

A dog would sleep at the foot of my bed.
 A dog would roll over and learn to play dead.
 He would never tell secrets or snitch about things that we do.
 A dog would go anywhere, any time, any place,
 he wouldn't care about mud on his face, no siree,
 you can take it from me.
 Can you tell me what sister would do all that stuff?
 She wouldn't you know, and that's rough,
 'cause a sister came instead of my dog.

[Instrumental break, or sing lyrics of first verse again]

A dog would sleep at the foot of my bed.
 A dog would roll over and learn to play dead.
 He would never tell secrets or snitch about things that we do.
 A dog would go anywhere, any time, any place,
 he wouldn't care about mud on his face, no siree,
 you can take it from me.
 Can you tell me what sister would do all that stuff?
 She wouldn't you know, and that's rough,
 'cause a sister came instead of my dog.

Don't want a ferret, no monkey or parrot,
 I just want me a dog. My very own dog.
 I'd walk him and feed him. I just really need him, my very own dog.
 Yeah, my very own dog.
 When I spoke to my parents and asked them for someone to play with
 they misunderstood my request,
 and a sister came instead of my dog.
 I got a sister, but I wanted a D-O-G, THAT spells DOG!
